I was to the Canada Embassy and what I get there was some how Surprised, I think if also the security was not advised to send me away it seems that American Security Company rule above the Canadian Government and there political and economical interest of this Country calls Canada! I don't know exactly but they even don't let me inside and don't talk with me, I think the cameras there are showing what is going on! If also the security company (American one) do there action already by they one and the Ambassador lose the control about the sovereignty of that peace of county, is the question why I should talk with that Government if is already under control of an American company! The Ambassador is maybe not fault in this case I love to see the RCMP in red in the Embassy, I love how they look like, for the Security Company I have a message, if you act by you own, it's cost you 300 million USA Dollar per second and put it here on the Bill!!!

More interesting is that the Monitoring criminal team Know what exactly is happening in the Embassy, or think they know, somebody should listen from time to time what he is talking special if I'm in the range of foreign country Embassy, how they have so many access on all this Information and know what is going on in the Embassy's, how get information out? The Security company need something like paper to say they was advice to kick me out, because they was not sure about to let me in or to let me out, you Need a paper from the Ambassador! If you don't have it, now it will be quiet difficult, because the World will be think the American Security Company have authority above the Canadian Government!
